

Workday Named a 2026 LinkedIn Top Company in Canada for the Fourth Consecutive Year

PLEASANTON, Calif., April 28, 2026 /CNW/ - Workday, Inc. (NASDAQ: WDAY), the enterprise AI platform for managing people, money, and agents, today announced it has been named a 2026 LinkedIn Top Company in Canada for the fourth consecutive year.

The annual ranking highlights the top workplaces for professionals to grow their careers in Canada, based on LinkedIn data. This recognition reflects Workday's investment in its employees in Canada, including a commitment to skills growth, opportunities to advance, and a supportive company culture.

"This recognition is a powerful reflection of our culture, which is driven by putting employees first," said Edward Charter, Canada country leader, Workday. "As we expand across the Canadian market, we're investing in local tech talent to build and deliver the AI future for our customers and partners – with people, trust, and progress at the core."

This recognition comes as more Canadian businesses, industries, and government organizations turn to unified, AI-powered platforms like Workday that modernize HR and finance while supporting compliance and responsible innovation. As part of its previously announced investment of CAD \$1 billion in Canada over the next five years, Workday is helping Canadian organizations bring people and AI agents together to transform how work gets done. Canada is one of Workday's largest global markets, with more than 1,100 employees supporting over 500 customers from various industries including financial services, technology and media, higher education, and retail.
