

Rolling Arrays joins the Workday Partner Program

Singapore, 04 August 2025 — Rolling Arrays Consulting, a leading HR transformation company headquartered in Singapore (backed by Skyform & Seatown Capital Master Fund), today announced it has joined the Workday global partner program to drive innovation through the power of partnership. Empowering enterprises with cutting-edge HR and ERP solutions tailored to the region's evolving workforce needs, this collaboration marks a significant milestone in expanding Workday's presence across Southeast Asia (SEA).

The partnership reinforces Rolling Arrays' mission to drive enterprise-wide HR innovation, digital transformation, and AI-first adoption—especially for large organizations navigating the complexities of the modern workforce.

This move comes following Rolling Arrays' acquisition by Skyform, a portfolio company of Seatown Holdings International, which is a wholly owned investment firm under Temasek's asset management platform. The acquisition has fuelled Rolling Arrays' growth momentum and strengthened its expansion roadmap across key SEA markets, including Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, Thailand, and the Philippines.

Manu Khetan, Founder and CEO of Rolling Arrays, shared:

"Partnering with Workday is a natural step forward in our journey to elevate the HR experience for businesses in SEA. Our combined capabilities will allow us to help CHROs and HR teams unlock real business value—from talent agility to data-driven decision-making—while providing world-class implementation and support."

Jess O'Reilly, General Manager, ASEAN at Workday, added:

"We are thrilled to welcome Rolling Arrays to the Workday partner ecosystem. Their proven track record in HR and transformation across the region, combined with their deep domain expertise, makes them a great addition to our partner program as we expand our footprint in Southeast Asia."

Spencer Lin, Director for Workday Practice at Rolling Arrays remarked:

"We're excited to bring Workday's market-leading platform together with our local expertise to address real workforce challenges. This partnership helps us to deliver faster deployments, deeper insights, and scalable solutions for forward-looking organizations in the region."

This partnership will equip Rolling Arrays to deliver full-cycle Workday deployment, optimization, and post-go-live support—cementing its position as a regional leader in HR Tech transformation.
